Footnotes
SAVED BY THE SWORD steadily advanced inside to gain the lead on the second turn, floated out some as he moved clear leaving that bend, was all out when challenged from inside the last furlong and held on. DAPPLED showed first, was kept close inside, commenced his bid just off the rail on the second turn, altered inside SAVED BY THE SWORD leaving the quarter pole, loomed inside the final eighth, hung in the late going but was easily second best. KEYSTONE KID took the early lead between horses, was challenged from inside on the second turn, drifted out some entering the lane, gradually backed up but saved third. PRETTY WAY settled inside, picked up his pace along the rail on the second bend, progressed to midstretch, angled out three wide after entering the final furlong and finished evenly. MATCHED without speed from inside, angled out midway on the backstretch, advanced five wide through the second turn then leveled off the last eighth. BATTLE AMOUR was prominent from outside for more than six furlongs, came three wide into the lane and gave way. ITS ALL ABOUT GOLD raced in contention between horses early but gave way two wide on the second bend. EXPLOSIVE KING was shuffled back just after the break, three to five wide the rest of the way and failed to menace. OPEN HUNT pressed the early speed just off the inside but gave way between horses into the second turn. DOLLAR DIPLOMACY in tight briefly between horses into the first turn, moved to the outside on that bend, gradually improved position to the second turn then faltered four wide entering the stretch.
