Footnotes
LIL DYNA bumped from the rear at the break, was shuffled back into the first bend, settled off the inside, picked up her pace nearing the second turn, was steadied behind traffic midway on that bend, altered inside shortly after that, rallied along the rail and took over inside the final sixteenth. REBA NELL moved clear on the first turn, showed the way in hand from inside, was roused at the top of the lane, floated out a bit upper stretch, could not hold off LIL DYNA in the late going but was clearly second best. DAWNS MISTAKE progressed between horses to pressed REBA NELL from outside, had every chance through the lane but hung deep stretch. TYLER'S GOLD STAR swiped the gate breaking outward, bumped LIL DYNA, gradually made up ground from outside, lost ground five wide into the second turn, angled in some as she circled horses leaving that bend, had a striking position with a furlong left but lugged in late as she leveled off. RODEO JILL rated from between horses for more than a half mile, lodged a mild bid three wide into the second turn, advanced, moved clear for third, fanned out some for the stretch run and began to flatten. BRUISERS BLACKGOLD chased four wide then steadily faded before finishing six furlongs. FLITTER FLATTER void of speed from inside, trailed into the second bend, swung outside midway on the turn and had no stretch bid. DON'T DO THE CRIME hesitated at the break, rushed up along the rail, stayed close just off the inside on the backstretch to the second turn then gave way.
