Footnotes
SHAKEEL'S BEST shared the lead in hand from inside, moved clear when let out on the second turn, was put to urging upper stretch, opened up on the rest then continued to lengthen command while ridden out inside the final furlong. SOCIALLY JADED bumped at the start, angled in some on the first turn, found herself boxed in on the backstretch and second turn, bumped with SUPERIOR COURAGE as she tried to gain a clear path at the quarter pole, got through two wide at the top of the lane, gave futile chase to the winner but was easily second best. SUPERIOR COURAGE disputed the pace just outside SHAKEEL'S BEST, could not stay with that one on the second turn, was bumped at the quarter pole, fanned out some into the stretch and failed to have much left for the drive. MY SILVERDIVA prompted the pacesetters three or four wide for a little more than six furlongs then also flattened for the drive.
