Footnotes
BULLDOG GEORGE was rated outside for more than a half mile, let out into the second turn, drew off, was put to the whip going to the eighth pole, dug in and held on. CANYON DE ORO was unruly in the gate, dwelt went the gate was opened, advanced outside, caught up with BULLDOG GEORGE in the upper stretch, battled through the lane, drifted out late under a left whip, was corrected when switched to right-handed pressure going to the wire and just missed in a game effort. MY LORD'S MAJESTY was settled just off the rail early, roused into the second turn, lost the whip entering the stretch, was no match for the top pair anyway but maintained control of third under steady handling. HERB AVORE trailed inside, angled out leaving the second turn then lacked a response in the drive. JUMPING JASPER sprinted clear inside, was checked briefly when his path was compromised by BULLDOG GEORGE into the second turn, was no match for the top pair going to the quarter pole and faltered once straightened for home.
