Footnotes
LAS VEGAS LUCKY stalked the leader from the start, inched up, responded when asked three wide early in the final turn, kicked clear and was kept tot task to the end. EDDIE MUNSTA was hustled to the front before the first turn, remained on the lead to the middle of the final turn and could not hold. VIBRANT TOPPER saved ground from the start, worked forward to rally gamely through the drive without impacting the top two. SURFER KRIS lagged well back to the stretch and rallied mildly late on the outside. GO ON TILT showed speed for a half mile while attending the pace and came up empty when it counted. LONGHORN raced unhurriedly, came five wide through the final turn and closed evenly. UNUSUAL MEN raced on the inside in the middle of the pack, shifted out for a final assault but had nothing left. SECTAURS also raced in the middle of the pack and did not threaten. SIDEPOCKET CAT showed little. SWEET FREEDOM had speed for a quarter mile and came up empty.
