Footnotes
CLOSE TO THE EDGE settled off the leaders while bit off the rail, came out and advanced outside, roused and reached the front passing three-sixteenths marker then kicked clear late under right hand urging. AIN'T NO OTHER angled over and pressured the pacesetter around the first turn, moved up and gained brief lead passing quarter marker, had little resistance for the winner approaching the stretch but gamely held the place. CLUBHOUSE RIDE stumbled badly right after the break, reserved, outside rival, chased two wide then between horses, moved up around the final turn, came out slightly in the lane and finished willingly. CANDY'S SUNRISE bumped slightly leaving the gate, stalked from off the rail then three wide around the final turn, angled over some in the drive but was outfinished for third. LEGAL SEPARATION tracked the pace from the inside, continued along the rail into the second turn, swung out four wide exiting that bend and failed to threaten. TWEEBSTER reserved along the rail, saved ground chasing the pace, angled off the fence, caught three wide on the second turn then four wide entering the stretch and lacked needed late punch. INDIAN FIREWATER was bumped at the start, recovered and gained stalking position three wide, continued well off the rail, roused then moved up and loomed outside rival leaving backstretch, took apparent bad step on the final turn, dropped back readily and never recovered. L. A. WEEKEND sped to the front and secured the inside, relinquished the front on the backstretch and weakened.
