Footnotes
SHARPEST CAT close up three wide, challenged on the second turn, dropped back a bit into the stretch then came again late to be up in time. WEST LONG BRANCH closest to the pace off the inside, challenged before a half, drew clear in midstretch but faltered late. CHARLIE V. angled out six wide on the first turn, advanced in that path on the second turn and made a late gain. YULLAH lost his footing at the start, set the pace inside, his rider lost his whip leaving the second turn, held on well to inside the final furlong and weakened. AWKWARD MOMENT within striking distance five wide, raced in the six path on the second turn and lacked a late bid. WAKI ABOUT BOO was no threat. TOP GLORY seven wide on the first turn, was outrun. MANHATTAN BEACH within striking distance, raced five wide with three furlongs to go and faded.
