Footnotes
MARK IN MONTEREY was outsprinted to the turn, bid two wide to mid turn, swung out into the stretch then responded when roused, drifted out through the drive but closed determinedly to prevail. EASY GOING GAL chased the pace to the turn, bid three wide to the stretch, dueled for the lead, had the rider lose his whip leaving the furlong marker then was outfinished in the final sixteenth. FLYIN IN THE CITY was hustled early and dueled for the lead from the rail to the stretch, responded to urging to deep stretch then lost her punch late. BAD GIRL BAD GIRL broke a bit slow then was urged early and raced up to engage for the lead, dueled two wide to the stretch, remained a factor leaving the furlong grounds then had the rider drop his whip at the sixteenth pole and came up empty. ANCIENT ARTIFACT had no speed, raced three wide to the stretch drifted out to mid stretch and was never a threat.
