Footnotes
SAIPAN was permitted to settle early, moved up into the turn while angling to the four path, continued to rally through the stretch and was up late to win driving. PORTLAND STORM pressed the pace from the outside throughout, challenged outside WHY KNOT US on the turn, dueled to deep stretch then could not hold the winner. WHY KNOT US set a pressured pace from just off the rail, was headed nearing the furlong pole but continued to respond in a game effort. CRAYON RED broke slow and was unhurried early, shifted to the outside for the draft and made up ground late. STREET LIGHTS stalked the pace early from just off the rail, saved ground on the turn and went evenly through the drive. COMMON TRUST dueled from between horses to the turn and gradually weakened.
