Footnotes

FLAMMABLE BOOM was always within striking distance from the rail, remained inside to the stretch, rallied to the lead leaving the furlong pole and held driving. EL SAINO lagged early from the rail, raced just off the rail on the second turn, then closed steadily while splitting foes late. ZEHNER'S ZENNA raced unhurried to the second turn, angled out to be four wide into the stretch and finished steadily from the extreme outside. TALKIN MCCARTY took command from well off the rail into the backstretch, remained out while dueling with SUMMER SUNSHINE to the head of the lane, disposed of that rival but slackened some late. EVENING ISLAND was forwardly placed inside throughout, remained on the rail while rallying into the strtch but flattened out late. REZAR tracked the leaders from the three path for six furlongs and slackened. FIRE SEEKER settled early three wide, tried to rally four wide into the stretch but lacked the needed response. SUMMER SUNTAN was not asked for speed from off the rail, was in the three path on the second turn but did not respond. SIX PACK ATTACK raced three and four wide throughout and failed to offer a serious bid. SUMMER SUNSHINE stalked the pace from the inside early, took command into the second turn but weakened once in the stretch. MILYONE was forwardly placed early, raced between horses throughout and did not rally. FLOATING FEATHER was wide early then fell from contention after a half mile and was eased in the stretch but walked off.
