Footnotes
ZOE'S CAJUN was off a bit slow and raced unhurried to the turn, offered a quick bid from the three path and between foes in the upper stretch to gain command before the furlong pole then was all out to last. RICK THE BARTENDER was permitted to settle early, came through between horses two wide on the turn to assume command in the upper stretch, did not match strides with the winner near the furlong pole but kept to his task and was coming back late. LUKE'S LEGACY lagged early, was fanned four wide on the turn and finished steadily. DANCING YODELER stalked the pace from the rail, had his best bid in the upper stretch and weakened. PERFECT MAJESTY stalked the pace early from the outside, was fanned five wide on the turn and weakened. R SEEKER set the pace from the inside early, edged clear on the turn but gave out his advantage while bearing out badly into the lane and could not recover. CALLDEROLL pressed the pace two wide to mid turn and gave out.
