Footnotes
DECKACARDS was permitted to settle early from off the rail, advanced two wide and between horses on the second turn, brushed with FUNNY HOW into the stretch, recovered and rallied steadily to gain command late and won driving. FASTER THAN DUKE set all of the pace from off the rail and was caught in final stages. OUTDOORSMAN GENE lagged early from the rail, angled four wide on the second turn but went evenly through the lane. ALBERTA BREEZE stalked the pace three wide to the stretch but lacked a closing response. OLYMPIC FLAME settled early, was three wide to the stretch but flattened out in the drive. KING BILL raced unhurried while four wide to the backstretch, was fanned five wide on the second turn and failed to rally. FUNNY HOW raced close up early from the inside, was in tight and a bit rank on the backstretch, remained inside on the second turn and in tight inside the winner, brushed with that rival entering the stretch and fell from contention. The Stewards posted the inquiry then the jockey aboard FUNNY HOW lodged an objection against the winner. Following a review of the second turn and to the head of the stretch, the stewards allowed the original finish to stand.
