Footnotes
CARO KING DESTINY broke readily to gain a narrow advantage inside foes racing into the first turn, dictated the pace along the rail to the far turn, shook clear midway through the second bend and continued with a game effort to withstand the challenge of RAZZO SUCCO to the end under firm handling. The latter tracked just off the first flight saving ground in the opening half, steadily advanced on the leader inside foes on the far turn, shifted outside that foe while being roused to challenge in upper stretch, closed the gap nearing the furlong marker but couldn't gain even terms with the winner. RISING ICON was settled in last racing to the backstretch and never gained contention. UNO MACHO MAN, in close attendance to the pace three deep in the opening stages, continued in that path into the second bend and steadily faded nearing upper stretch. DR. CALAHAN was urged to terms on the pace between foes racing to the backstretch, prompted the eventual winner to the far turn and gave way after six furlongs.
