Footnotes

LIL CARMELITA broke readily, was held up just outside the first flight in the opening half, continued under some reserve three deep between foes on the turn, split foes in that path nearing upper stretch to challenge and prevailed in the final stages under firm handling. VAULTS LAST SISTER moved to the fore along the inside soon after the break, dueled for command into the lane, couldn't contain the winner's final bid but held well enough to earn the place. OH MY SWEETIE PIE, reserved off the leaders while switching nearer the inside in the opening stages, angled out while moving readily to striking distance on the turn racing four deep, switched out five wide in upper stretch and continued willingly in that path to the end to close the gap on the top pair and earn a share. SHESA TOUGH KITTY, prominent between foes from the outset, attended a rival's pace in the opening half, pressed the issue through the turn and weakened in late stages. I'VE HEARD RUMORS, off a bit slowly, was guided to the inside in the opening stages, saved ground to upper stretch and steadily improved her position. OVID FASTI, forwardly placed outside foes from the break, pressed the pace racing three wide into the turn and gave way nearing midstretch. ARCHIPELAGO angled to the inside in the opening stages while securing a tracking position just behind the first flight, continued in that path for six furlong and steadily faded entering upper stretch. MAYBE BABY stumbled at the start, was settled outside foes in the opening half, advanced to striking position racing four wide on the turn but flattened out nearing upper stretch. THELMA'S SONGCAT tracked the leaders unhurried along the inside in the opening stages but soon dropped out.
