Footnotes

SPUD SPIVENS chased outside then four wide leaving the turn and into the stretch and also rallied late to gain the place three deep on the line. SHANE DANIEL had good early speed and set a pressured pace a bit off the rail, angled in and inched away leaving the turn, kicked clear past midstretch and held on well but was caught late. MI MARINO prompted the pace outside then alongside a rival, came out some into the stretch and weakened. GRAYDLE'S RED chased between horses or off the rail, continued outside a rival on the turn and three deep into the stretch and did not rally. BRITE RED REASON broke a bit slowly, settled just off the rail chasing the pace, angled in on the turn and lacked the necessary response. EAST SKY pulled his way along to chase between horses, was in a bit tight into the turn, angled to the inside on the turn and was not a threat. JANUARY GOLD hesitated to be away behind the field, settled off the rail, came out into the stretch and was not a factor.
