Footnotes

COWGIRL KNOCKOUT, prominent along the inside from the break attending a rival's pace, steadily asserted herself leaving the midway point of the turn to gain the advantage, forged clear racing into upper stretch, widened her margin under some right handed pressure, then was vanned off the course after collapsing in the winner's circle. CYBERPHOBE tracked the leaders four deep in the second flight from just out of striking distance racing to the turn, made steady progress in that path to gain position racing into upper stretch, couldn't menace the winner but proved best of the others. QUEEN OF SCIOTO, held up off the second flight while being guided to the rail in the opening quarter, made some progress to briefly gain second inside foes racing into upper stretch but was outfinished for place honors. SILKY SAMI settled into stride along the inside as part of the last flight, switched out five wide entering the stretch while making an effort to gain some position but made no real impression. WILDCAT MISS tracked the leaders three deep between foes in second flight racing into the turn but couldn't produce the needed late response. RARE ACTION, a bit outpaced racing outside foes in the opening stages, was fanned six wide racing into the stretch but proved no factor. HELLO HANNAH shifted off the inside racing through the backstretch while prompted to maintain a position tracking just off the first flight, continued three deep on the bend and steadily retreated nearing upper stretch. SLAVIC PRINCESS joined the pace outside the eventual winner soon after the start, pressed that foe racing into the turn and gave way just before a half.
