Footnotes

GAME SEVEN was squeezed between rivals at the start, advanced four wide down the backside, rallied three wide through the final turn, took command in mid stretch and inched clear. MONAHEE away alertly and tracked the pacesetter three wide into the first turn, continued from a tracking position into the final turn from along the inside, tipped off the rail in deep stretch and was up for the place. DOUBLE MINOR rushed to the lead from along the inside entering the first turn, opened a clear lead entering the backstretch, held that clear margin through the final turn but tired in the stretch drive. RECKONING showed no early speed while lagging well back, closed four wide through the final turn and stretch while improving his position without ever threatening. WHATASENSEOFHUMOR settled off the early pace while saving ground along the inside, rallied one from the rail entering the final turn, but needed more of a closing response. CLOSING INTENTIONS stalked the early leaders while racing three wide into the backstretch, but faded slightly over the final furlong. I'M FAMOUS settled off the leaders racing one from the rail through the first turn, but lacked the needed closing response when called upon. CONTACT MAN stalked the pace from along the rail through the first turn, but had little left in the late stages. WINTERHAWK unhurried early while dropping back to trail, and failed to menace. WESTERN FURY broke sharply and tracked the leaders into the first turn one from the rail, dropped back in the run down the backside, and offered little in the late going. BLACK WHISKY broke sharply and tracked the leader into the first turn racing one from the rail, but was through soon after entering the backstretch.
