Footnotes
HERSILIA stalked the pacesetter two wide through the turn, moved to the front when asked entering the lane, opened a clear lead outside the eighth pole then held when under intermittent urging late. NOBLE GRACE was in mid-pack through the turn while in the three path, bid into the lane and was steadily gaining to the end to finish second best. HOPEY was bumped and forced to the outside at the start, trailed the field into the lane then was up for the show spot while never a threat. ANGEL IN BLUE set the pace along the inside into the lane then gave way near the three-sixteenths pole. SHE'S A SLY DEVIL was in the two or three path into the lane and never factored. LIKE MY JOB broke to the outside bumping foe, raced near the inside into the lane and was never seriously involved. SUGAR MAY chased the pacesetters from the three path into late turn then faded. HANNAH MISSISSIPPI steadily faded along the inside.
