Footnotes

SIPHONIC gained a narrow lead soon after the start, raced a bit off the inside and was within himself despite being pressured by HARLAN'S HOLIDAY, put that one away entering the stretch, was rapped once left-handed about the sixteenth pole, then drew off to win impressively under hand urging. HARLAN'S HOLIDAY went up soon after the start to press the winner while outside that one, continued close up until the stretch and couldn't match strides with SIPHONIC thereafter as second best. METATRON, in hand while in behind the leaders early, eased out to make a run four wide nearing the stretch, was within easy striking distance but came up empty. CRIMSON HERO, void of early speed and angled inside soon after the start, was outrun for six furlongs, came out five or six wide for the drive and improved position while not a serious threat. REQUEST FOR PAROLE, checked in tight quarters between rivals nearing the first turn, recovered to gain a position four or five wide, raced within striking distance to the stretch but failed to respond. GOLD DOLLAR, outrun early, made a mild bid along the inside entering the upper stretch but failed to continue. KAMSACK, a bit rank while in behind foes into the backstretch, failed to menace. BURNT EMBER bobbled while breaking out at the start, moved up soon after to stalk the pace four or five wide and tired upon going six furlongs. SUNKOSI saved ground in a contending position for nearly six furlongs and tired. FINE AND DANDY also faded after three-quarters. JUGGERNAUT, fractious in the gate prior to the start, raced in contention five or six wide to the end of the backstretch and tired thereafter.
