Footnotes
FOREST PRINCE settled from the outside, made steady progress three wide into and on the turn, bid between horses entering the lane, reached the front then inched away and prevailed despite lugging out nearing the wire. BIG CITY SLICKER broke out but quickly recovered and contested the pace from the inside, gained brief lead on the turn, relinquished control in upper stretch but fought gamely from the inside the winner to the finish. CAJUN GENT was forced out some leaving the gate, raced in tandem outside rival early then forced the pace on the turn, drifted out some entering the lane, came out further in the drive but held for the show. FORD ISLAND chased early from along the rail, was in tight and checked momentarily nearing quarter maker,hugged the fence into the stretch then came out slightly and bested others. RUMMYSECRET WAR bumped at the start, dropped well back early, later shifted to the rail and only passed tiring rivals. FALL APART bumped with outside foe at the start, showed good early foot then was taken off the leaders, stalked two then three wide but dropped back and weakened. MI MEJOR CARTA unhurried from the outside, caught four wide to the turn, came in some around the bend but was outrun.
