Footnotes
AMERICAN CADE broke on top, set all the pace, shook clear when straightened for home, increased advantage, kept to task. GRAND MINIT raced in the second flight, four wide late in the turn, proved no match for the winner, second best. CZARB bobbled at the start, pressured the winner early, bid, vied into the lane, weakened, held the show. STORMY SURGE lacked speed, angled to the outside for the drive, finished up willingly. BOLENBACKER forwardly placed, had little left for the drive. RED ENSIGN three wide, not a threat. THE CAJUN KING faded. MALAGRAVALI failed to menace. ATLEE STATION remained back. TAKE A WILD CHANCE five wide through the turn, gave way in the drive. NEWFIE SPIRIT always outrun. HARRAH'S LAD never involved.
