Footnotes
GET ER DONE YANK unhurried early, roused second turn, roused four wide into the straight, continued brisk pressure, proved best. A BIG TO'DO void of early foot, steady advance before a half, traffic into the lane, dropped to the rail for room upper stretch, finished willingly. LOAFERS GLORY also well back early, began to move with the winner far turn inside that one, could not keep up, displayed some modest late interest, up for show. TAMO TIGER pressed the pace, put a head in front exiting the final turn, weakened in the final furlong. S P WARRIOR fell back, raced widest in the drive, lacked a rally in finishing evenly. JAZZBERRYJAM fractious prerace, pressured the pace three wide, had little left for the drive. BOBBYN BOUIE lacked late bid. RED SASH remained always back. DOCTOR ETBAUER set the pace toward the inside, got out a bit first turn, gave way. MILITARY SOLUTION stopped after a half.
