Footnotes
RICH ELM unhurried in the early going toward the inside, circled four wide into a striking position turning into the straight, bid soon after, drove clear. JOEY'S MIZZEN MAST settled off the pace, moved with the winner three wide out of the second turn, could not keep up with that foe, up late for the place. WHY NOT BE PERFECT set or forced the pace, shook clear second turn, could not last. DANCE ALL THE WAY lacked speed, continued to race well back second turn, roused three wide turning for home, staged a mild rally. UNCLE BOOTY made little impact. CENTER COURT STAR last away, lacked speed, picked off a couple of falteri9ng foes. ROAR CAT carried out a bit into the first turn, raced within striking distance for five furlongs, tired. BIG BUDDY SMITH showed some brief speed off the inside, began to retreat before a half. LUJACK pressed, vied up front the middle half, gave way. GRANTS DECISION never close, trailed far back.
