Footnotes
FRANCHISE MAKER broke alertly, got clear into the first turn, relinquished the lead to a loose horse onto the backstretch, advanced and vied between that one and the runner up who had ranged up three wide, proved best in the drive under steady handling. HULA PIE chased the winner early, moved up to challenge in the three path in the second turn, could not match strides in the drive, all out to save the place. BLUEZY settled off the pace, two path into the lane, finished up best of the rest. UBETA HOPE lacked speed, improved position without posing a serious threat. MALABAR CROWN void of speed, also lacked a significant response while racing off the inside. DIVIDED within striking distance for a half, faded. I'M GOOD TO GO was never involved in a dull effort. STORM OSIDY began a steady retreat before a half, eased stretch, vanned off. SHINEMAN stumbled badly at the start, unseated rider.
