Footnotes
DONT BLAME THE CAT , rated within range while four wide, steadily advanced nearing the quarter pole, closed determinedly under stout left handed urging, assumed command seventy yards out and edged clear. REGAL WARRIOR , bumped and pinched back at the break, was taken to rate early, moved closer under rating past the three eighths pole, gained four wide into the lane, worked between rivals in mid stretch, shifted in and finished gamely. COLE T took command at once, set a solid pace two wide, edged away in upper stretch, was collared inside the sixteenth marker and gave way grudgingly. TURBO SPEED drifted in and bumped with REGAL WARRIOR leaving the gate, chased the pace while off the rail, came five wide for the drive, made steady progress nearing the sixteenth pole then flattened out. DEPUTY DANEY stalked the pace while saving ground, eased out a bit in upper stretch and faded. OUR COMMANDER had a wide trip and failed to generate a solid response. PROUD OF MIDWAY lacked speed and failed to threaten. DAY FLIGHT was rated back from between rivals near the five eighths pole, raced wide in the drive and had no rally. KENS CAPE , bumped at the break, rushed up between rivals soon after, chased the pace three wide to upper stretch then weakened. B'WANAGOLDMINE was urged along inside and weakened.
