Footnotes
HE CAN RUN , outrun early while under urging, circled five wide picking up momentum nearing the lane, rallied to the front leaving the eighth pole and edged clear late under a drive. FOREIGN REVIEW broke in to be away a step slow, recovered and steadily advanced off the rail to be within range three furlongs out, rallied four wide between rivals to challenge in mid stretch then stayed on willingly. JORIBE broke sluggishly then was put to a ride soon after, lagged back to mid turn, swung out wide for the drive and finished with good energy. JARROD'S COMMANDO vied outside early, moved clear early turn and set a rated pace, remained clear to mid stretch then gave way in the final sixteenth. ST. JOHNSWOOD stalked the pace, edged closer three wide into the lane, chased between rivals in mid stretch then faded. SALT AND LIGHT sprinted to the front, was headed near the half mile pole, chased along the rail from there then gave way leaving mid stretch. PEPPERMINT PRINCE rated between rivals early, moved to be within range after a half, angled out some and came up empty. UNBRIDLED PUNCH , hustled along while saving ground, failed to respond. GRAND SCIP , wide, dropped back early.
