Footnotes

RICHARD'S KID lost ground on both turns, swung wide at the head of the stretch, took command inside the eighth pole then drove clear. KNIGHT IN ARMOUR prompted the pace, gained a two wide lead midway on the far turn, dueled through the stretch and finished willingly. CINDER CONE , steadied and a bit rank in traffic near the seven eighths pole, circled the far turn, dueled to midstretch then tired. PROMISEI'LLBEHOME lacked speed and was not a threat. DIPPI TRIPPI , sent to the lead, set the pace along the rail and gave way. MIDNIGHTER , very wide entering the stretch, was not a factor. FIT FOR A FIGHT pressed the pace and faltered. LAKE ISLE gave way and was eased.
