Footnotes
AUNTIE ADELE bumped at the start, then pressed the pace, moved up down the home stretch and dueled with WILD RIDE, prevailed. WILD RIDE bumped at the start, then went to the front, moved to the rail, lead throughout, dueled down the lane with AUNTIE ADELE, missed, but was best of others. SUPRIZED void of early speed, came around the second turn four wide and made a late gain. JOHN'S DEVIL raced near the back in the early going, moved up and finished evenly. PINE EARL raced within contention, being reserved, was done early. CUBBING'S RUBY was unprepared at the start and always raced near the back. I YAI YAI broke in at the start, had a wide trip and was no threat. RIO RIVER ROSE raced in the middle of the field, came around the first turn five wide and dropped to the back.
