Footnotes

HOPEFUL BANDIT quickly showed in front, was briefly threatened by IRISH FRANKIE at the quarter pole, repulsed that bid and left the field behind from mid stretch, won as much the best in hand. MARGINALSAINT tracked around the bend, rallied three wide into the lane, won the battle for second place but never threatened the winner. IRISH FRANKIE rushed a three to four wide move at the quarter pole and loomed off the winner, was turned away by upper stretch, was outfinished late fighting for second place. SIR DUR unhurried leaving the gate, angled inside on the turn, finished with interest racing along the rail missing third place. ROMAS SPIRIT stalked the winner briefly racing between foes, began to weaken in upper stretch, used up. JAGWIRED lacked speed racing mid track, came four to five wide top of the lane, offered little. POWER OF GOSPEL stumbled at the break, raced towards the inside around the bend, never factored in the lane. LEFTY MALONE flashed brief foot, gave way and stopped top of the lane finishing well beaten.
