Footnotes
DANCER SPIRIT broke sharply but was soon out sprinted for the lead by FANNY'S PRIDE, stalked to top of the lane, came again moving clear in upper stretch, widened inside the eighth pole to win easily under steady pressure. MY SISTER CONNIE trailed to top of the lane, swung out five wide under a drive, closed willingly gaining second place but never threatened the winner. SAKI settled in the second flight, saved ground around the bend, split foes mid stretch traveling towards the inside, finished willingly securing third place. DAILY GRACE angled to the rail shortly after the start, tracked to top of the stretch, lacked needed response despite being hard ridden. FLYING REPENT lacked early foot, moved off the rail going into the far turn, traveled in the four path under a drive entering the stretch, failed to respond, no menace. BEST CAMPER was forwardly placed from the start, stalked racing three wide, gave chase entering the stretch under encouragement, had no response and flattened out with a furlong to go. FANNY'S PRIDE rushed into the far turn taking the lead, raced in the two path around the turn setting the pace, headed turning for home, had nothing left by mid stretch and gave to the finish line.
