Footnotes
TEN BELLS hustled to the front, felt some pressure at the half by the loose horse, opened up on the field mid turn, was kept to task as lead was diminishing coming to the wire. NORTHERN PRINCE settled early, launched rally mid turn, narrowed the gap in deep stretch finishing a willing second best. MITCH'S TWO BELOW chased a loose leader from the half, failed to menace in the lane and was all out saving third place. DARBOY stalked the winner throughout, lacked response when asked for more, bested rest. BAI BAI DUBAI raced mid pack throughout, lacked rally never threatening. SPECTACULAR TAP varied little racing towards the rear, stopped top of the stretch finishing weary. ONE NICE OFFER chased the winner to the five eighths pole, quickly faded leaving the far turn, stopped and was eased in upper stretch. TRIPPIN' AWAY reared just as the gate was opening losing the rider.
