Footnotes
CHIEF COMPLAINT set a well rated pace traveling off the rail, was headed by JERSY DEVIL at the quarter pole, turned that rival away mid stretch, held sway late under steady encouragement. JERSEY DEVIL stalked the winner early on, drew even at the quarter pole, was repulsed mid stretch, began to weaken late but dug in saving second place. CRYPTO DEVIL tracked racing well off the rail, set down at the quarter pole, came five wide into the lane, finished willingly picking up third place. THOMAS J raced mid pack, began to chase while racing between rivals on the bend, lacked needed surge. LOUISVILLELUMINARY raced in good stalking position along the inside, chased under a stiff drive entering the stretch, lacked rally and weakened. ITZA PURRFECT RIDE settled towards the rear running mid track, failed to respond when called upon. YEMEN was unhurried leaving the gate and guided over to the rail, trailed throughout, showed little.
