Footnotes

ELROYSTHEBOY pressed for the early lead racing along the rail, took back leaving the half mile marker, angled out mid turn, came five wide entering the stretch, drew even mid stretch vying for the lead, drew off late under strong encouragement. SILVER BIRCH set a pressured pace throughout, headed from the quarter pole, traveled in the three path battling for the lead in upper stretch, matched strides to the sixteenth pole, yielded stubbornly to the winner but dug in saving second place. OH BOY raced up close to the pace from the start, loomed off the leader at the quarter pole, vied in a three way battle mid stretch running between rivals, flattened out late and settled for third best. SIR JIM reserved early and saved ground throughout, rallied entering the stretch, held a menacing position mid stretch, failed to sustain move and leveled off needing more late. COMING HOME SOON well placed tracking the pace down the backside, failed to respond when asked, was no late threat besting rest. STREET SHOES LARRY settled towards the rear, mildly improved placing in the lane but never factored. CHAPIN RIDGE raced four wide into the first turn, raced towards the rear at the half, slightly improved position while never menacing. MR. INVESTER was outrun early, showed little. MINER'S CLAIM raced in mid pack traveling off the rail, began to drop off at the quarter pole, used up. DONTQUITYOURDAYJOB raced wide down the backstretch, gave way from the quarter pole finishing well beaten.
