Footnotes
ROYAL RED SECRET broke sharply clearing the field hustling on lead through the turn, angling from the two path to the rail would extend to hold up late. B. MURRAY stalked the pace through the turn coming three wide upper stretch, gaining on the leader would drift out near the wire hanging on for place. MYMAMADONTDANCE close early would drop off the leaders on the turn, racing four path upper stretch was making late headway when carried out by a drifting B. MURRAY neat the wire. BRYNNIE'S MR. SMEE veered out bumping at the break, saved ground to upper stretch finding late response near the rail. JET FLAG slow early was circled out to upper stretch vying evenly late in the seven path. TETON STAR slow early was angled to mid track in upper stretch gaining belatedly on a weary front end. AUDITORIUM a step slow through the turn was never involved. EXECUTIVE DREAM was always outrun.
