Footnotes
GRAND PRELUDE chased on the turn, raced in the three path into the lane and reached the front passing the eighth pole then held off a rival to the wire. PRINTING PRESS advanced outside on the turn, was in the four path entering the stretch and pressed the top one then was not quite good enough. SCALLION broke slowly, raced between rivals entering the stretch and finished willingly. BATTLE CALL raced three wide on the turn and lacked a rally. DADDY'S WILDCAT reached the front passing the half mile pole, drew clear on the turn, weakened in the drive and was allowed to coast passing the sixteenth pole then was ridden some again nearing the wire. MIAMI MUSIC chased three wide on the turn and tired. CHAI WALLAH showed the way through the early stages, saved ground and remained a factor to the lane then tired. BANKS ROBERTSON chased early, was steadied on the backstretch and weakened.
