Footnotes

INDY, unhurried, started his drive five wide into the final turn, continued in a steady stretch advance and got up the final strides. LEADING THE PARADE, unhurried inside, started his drive on the rail into the final turn, eased around tiring rivals through the stretch to take a short late lead but was outfinished in the closing strides. KEY EVENT rated off the pace off the rail, started his drive leaving the final turn, angled in entering the stretch, drew briefly clear approaching the sixteenth pole then leveled off toward the wire. LITTLE DOVEFEATHER rated off the pace inside, bid into the final turn, was shut off altering course in midstretch and recovered quickly to finish well. LIGHTNING POWER angled in early, settled unhurriedly the opening half mile, advanced saving ground on the final turn and finished well toward mid track. HATCH (GB) rated a clear lead off the rail, was pressured for run into the lane and weakened at the eighth pole. GADGET MAN, widest on the chute, settled in unhurried outside and finished evenly. DEAR HENRY was taken toward the outside on the chute, angled in entering the main track to rate off the pace and off the rail then never factored. DON'T PARK NOW never factored. JUNIPER KNIGHT rated close to the early pace about the three path then faded toward the quarter pole. DEWEY kept off the pace about the four path then faded into the final turn.
