Footnotes

THAT'S LUCKY lunged at the start, stalked the pace on the rail, bid four wide at the quarter pole, led in the stretch and held well. CARDIAC CAT vied for the lead on the rail, weakened in the second turn, rallied and held place. COUNTDOWN AT CAPE dropped back early, gained ground steadily, rallied four wide and closed fast. A BOY FOR ANGIE lacked early speed and trailed, gained ground in the second turn, got through on the rail and finished well. HAWAIIAN RULER vied for the lead from between rivals, weakened in the second turn and dropped back. J DOUBLE A vied for the lead while three wide, weakened at the quarter pole and gave way. OIL KING had a poor start, raced evenly to the outside but weakened in the second turn. SIBERIAN SLEWPY was off slowly, ran evenly, dropped back in the second turn and trailed in the stretch.
