Footnotes

SORTA SASSY was prompted to gain a forward placing while angling to the rail racing into the first turn, tracked just off the pacesetter while inside that foe under light reserve for five furlongs, made steady progress when prompted on the far turn to challenge for command inside foes, gained a clear advantage racing into upper stretch and held sway to the end under pressure. MONSTRIP tracked the pacesetter between foes in the second flight in the opening half, angled to the rail midway through the far turn and continued with a steady effort to secure the place honors. DEHEREWEGO was urged to gain a contending position three deep tracking just off the pacesetter racing to the backstretch, moved to prompt the leader in that path nearing the far turn, pressed the issue three deep through the far turn while striking the front but failed to sustain that effort through the final quarter. MISS LIVINGSTON broke slowly, settled into stride off the inside, then made some belated progress racing into the stretch while shifting out four wide in the closing stages. LIL CARMELITA was urged to secure the lead while racing a bit off the inside into the first turn, dictated the pace on a narrow margin between foes to the second bend, briefly contested the issue between foes but gave out racing into upper stretch. GIUSEPPINA tracked off the second flight under light reserve near the inside racing to the backstretch and steadily faded from contention.
