Footnotes
LA NEIGE (GB) stalked the pace three wide, lodged a bid nearing the quarter pole, assumed command into the lane, kicked clear under right handed urging then was put to steady hand pressure in the final sixteenth. DOUBLE DOORS (GB) stalked inside, eased out entering the lane and finished willingly. PHOENIX HEAT , unhurried early, made a three wide run leaving the far turn then flattened out in the final furlong. FALSE I. D. , unhurried early, came five wide for the drive and passed tiring rivals. WANNABE gained a clear lead into the first turn, set the pace inside, took pressure nearing the far turn, was confronted by the winner nearing the quarter pole then tired in the final three sixteenths. DR RICO , allowed to settle while saving ground, swung wide for the drive and failed to respond. DYNADEVIL lagged early, was angled to the rail leaving mid stretch then had some belated action. NASHLY'S RUNNER was rated back off the leader nearing the first turn, angled out soon after, lodged a two wide bid leaving the five eighths pole, pressed the pace to the quarter pole then tired. MANTLE , well placed early, faltered and was eased.
