Footnotes

SERENGETI TOUR rated just out of striking distance between foes near the inside in the opening stages, made steady progress to gain terms with a rival in second flight along the inside racing into the turn, shifted out to split foes nearing upper stretch, turned back a challenge from INVISIBLE STAR and went clear under some right handed pressure. The latter tracked the leaders outside a rival in the second flight racing to the bend, angled out four wide to challenge in tandem with the winner, pressed that foe to midstretch but proved no match while best of the others. RIVERSIDE RASCAL settled inside foes in the opening furlong, shifted outside foes on the backstretch, then steadily improved his position between foes to the end while never menacing the top pair. BOSCO RULES tracked just the pacesetter off the inside racing into the turn but offered no closing bid nearing upper stretch. ZAGOMOR moved to the fore inside foes soon after the break, set the pace on a clear margin into upper stretch and gave way once headed by the winner. FOXTROT OSCAR, squeezed a bit between foes at the start, was righted to track between foes off the second flight racing to the bend but lacked the needed rally. JUDITH'S LAKE was a brief factor outside foes racing outside a rival in second flight but was spent after a half. ILLINI MO retreated steadily from contention after a half.
