Footnotes

WADI SUKI away from the gate in good order, set the pace while racing along the inside, was put to the test by the runner up on the second turn, but dug in with determination to preserve the decision. PLATINUM COUPLE prompted the pacesetter from the outside, issued his bid for the lead midway around the second turn, briefly drew alongside that rival nearing the quarter pole, was shaken off turning for home, then came back on under strong handling, but couldn't go by. GREG GOT EVEN unhurried for three-quarters, finished willingly along the outside to grab the show. INCREDIBLE SPEED rank under restraint during the opening stages, was taken outward soon after entering the backstretch, ducked back to the rail on the far turn, had a mild rally after being called upon. FEROCIOUS WON raced three wide around both turns and tired. SARATOGA LULABY broke sluggishly after throwing his head at the start, was never a serious threat thereafter. VETTRIANO (IRE) was steadied after being bumped a couple of jumps out of the starting gate, failed to reach a contending position. HARD IRON saved ground to no avail. FREGATA underwent a three wide journey and tired. KRIS ANGEL was outrun.
