Footnotes

DR DISCO came away in good order, was initially under some hand encouragement leaving the gate before being taken in hand and allowed to ease back rather than tussle prematurely with another pair for control, sat patiently parked in the three path departing the backstretch, effortlessly joined the front runners approaching the five-sixteenths pole, appeared to strike the front heading into the lane, got turned loose after being straightened away and lengthened out to clear advantage by midstretch, kept the second place finisher at a safe distance behind, remaining under a brisk hand rider until about the last seventy yards. STARFORADAY unhurried in the opening stages, vacated the rail coming to the five-sixteenths pole, swung three wide into the lane, proved no match for the top one. LITIGATION RISK was hustled to the front, argued for command from the inside, got set down turning for home, weakened during the final furlong. DRIVEN BY SUCCESS got outthrust by LITIGATION RISK, pressed the issue from the two path, continued his bid from between rivals during the later stages of the run around the bend, failed to fire when asked for run in upper stretch.
