Footnotes

CAPE COD CAROL tracked the front runners while saving ground, moved when ready launching a clear rail rally leaving the five-sixteenths pole, drew clear. SISTER CITY three wide at the five-sixteenths pole, proved no match. KARA'S MATCH POINT underwent a ground-saving journey, and got the show. MADRE DITUTTICAPI broke out slightly as the field was sent on its way, swung four wide into the stretch, lacked a solid response. TALENT N PASSION set the pace from the two path, yielded when challenged by the winner along the unprotected rail corridor coming to the quarter pole and gave way. TWO HEARTS IN ONE raced four wide on the turn and tired. TIZ TERESA stumbled badly at the start and trailed throughout.
