Footnotes

PLEASANT EARTH rated three wide, challenged the leaders before the half, drew clear into the stretch, inherited a longer lead and stayed safe under steady handling. GENTLEMAN JIM allowed to settle inside, closed well through the stretch too late. TRULY A CHAMP chased inside, was blocked on the final turn then closed well when clear. RICK THE BARTENDER was fanned five wide into the first turn, dropped back and lacked a solid rally. SOUTH FLEET broke in the air at the start, advanced wide and tired. OASIS OF CHANCE was within striking range in the two path then faltered. PALEO NATIVE broke a step slowly, raced wide and faded. J P'S FLING was always outrun. BRAYZEN BILLY saved ground just off the pace and stopped. BONAROO dueled inside, weakened on the final turn then struck a stricken rival near the top of the stretch and fell. HOLY BEAR dueled in the two path, was running second near the top of the stretch when he broke down in his left front and fell and was subsequently euthanized. The stewards conducted an inquiry into the running of the race.
