Footnotes

NOAH'S HARVEST moved up between foes, drifted out while taking the lead and the head of the lane, was clear in mid stretch and continued to drew out. RUM DIARY was bothered leaving the gate, raced wide, was carried out entering the stretch and was no match. MERCURIO was bothered after start and again entering the first turn, raced outside, split foes near stretch and flattened out late. SELF saved ground and tired. PROUD SKIP vied for command between foes and tired. THE MANAGER was fractious in the paddock, dueled three wide, bore out on the final turn and gave way. THE HIGH PRIEST failed to menace. STRIKING HAT saved ground and tired. TERMINAL VELOCITY came out sharply and impeded rivals leaving the gate and impeded another rival entering the first turn turn.
