Footnotes
COCO'S SWEETIE broke sharply and was quickly steered off the rail, remained in the four path setting the pace, lost the lead in early stretch, fought back and gamely got the decision. DIVA'S GOLD was rated between foes, angled in when launching her bid after a half mile, rallied to the lead in early stretch but couldn't last. SEYCHELLES broke slowest, raced under a snug hold early while between rivals, angled to the outside entering the stretch, lodged a bid but then quickly flattened out. QUEEN'S RULE saved ground and failed to menace. ANN'S SMART DANCER unseated her rider as she passed the starting gate during the post parade and she ran loose for about a half mile. She was captured, but only briefly as she got loose again and she ran around the mile and a quarter chute before being caught again. ANNE'S SMART DANCER appeared to be a bit unsettled in the starting gate, leaning back, and after the doors opened she ducked out sharply, she remained wide throughout, offered a bid on the final turn but then gave way. HOLLADAY DIXIE stalked the pace outside winner and tired badly.
