Footnotes
PRINCESS MALIA stalked the leader outside, took over when ready on the turn and drew away eagerly while kept to a drive to the final yards. WADE COUNTY set the pace inside, was engaged at the three eighths pole, proved no match but lasted for the place. BABY AT THE PARK saved ground throughout, dropped back early then closed well without threatening. AMERICAN DARLING chased very wide and was never a factor. DOUBLE DESERT stumbled badly at the start and never reached contention. BRUSH CREEK HONEY raced well positioned three wide for half a mile then gave way.
