Footnotes
NORMANDRUTH trailed for half a mile, split rivals rallying strongly into the stretch, and edged ahead after a long final furlong battle. CANTONA settled early inside, advanced to the front near mid-stretch but was outfinished in a game showing. MR. POPPS angled five wide early, moved closer on the turn and lacked a rally. VEGAS JOE prompted the pace very wide to the stretch then came up empty. WICKY JONES vied between rivals, edged to the front on the turn then weakened through the stretch. GREEK GOLD earned a narrow advantage between rivals to the turn then faded. BRASILIER forced the pace inside, broke down in his left front nearing the eighth pole and was euthanized by a track veterinarian.
