Footnotes

ADRIATIC PEARLS away well, was put to a firm hold while assuming the role of stalker after the break, continued along, unasked, and poised just off the leader's flank for nearly a half, commenced to rally in earnest once straightened away in upper stretch, gradually reached the leader, battled on nearly even terms during the final sixteenth and got the nose down in time at the wire to prevail. IN HER HEY DAY off to an alert beginning, grabbed early command, cut the fractions from the inside, well rated and on a loosely-contested lead until the upper stretch, was put to encouragement after the top one began her rally, battled gamely leaving the sixteenth pole, but got nipped. BELLARIFFIC lunged at the start, was urged into a forward position before being switched to a snug hold, coming to the half mile pole, raced within striking distance from the three path around the turn, was heavily roused spinning into the lane, closed well, but had to settle for show honors. KATIE'S DANCE saved ground and lacked the necessary stretch response. LUTE was off slowly, spotting the field a considerable head start after brushing the left side of the starting gate, was allowed to settle into stride down the backstretch, angled three wide into the lane and improved position, displaying a mild kick. SHADY ROAD raced along the outside and had no rally. RED TO POSITIVE saved ground until the five-sixteenths pole and was never a factor. SARATOGA QUEST three wide departing the backstretch, had only brief foot.
