Footnotes

LATIN ROCKS lightly urged to the front, set the pace well rated in the two path, edged away from the competition coming to the five-sixteenths pole, drew off with authority, ridden out until the sixteenth pole, before gearing down in the late stages. INDIAN LILLY angled four wide into the lane and got up for the place. HIGH FLYING ADORE placed three wide at the half mile, lost ground to the top one, despite being asked for run from midway on the turn and steadily tired thereafter. BARBARA'S BEAUTY chased from the outside for a half and gave way. ZAZZLE was never involved. RUNNING IN CIRCLES faded off a ground-saving journey. BLUMEN ALLEY was through after going a half.
